JETS DIRECTORS

"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Directors Leon Hess, Townsend B. Martin and Mrs. Helen Dillon showed their desire to return the club to the forefront of the National Football League in 1977 when they selected Walt Michaels to be their leader on the field and Jim Kensil to assume the full responsibility of administering the overall operation of the club.

In between naming Michaels and Kensil, the directors fought long and hard to secure early home dates. For over a decade, the Jets had been "orphans" of the NFL, never being allowed to play preseason or regular season games before their fans during the baseball season.

That all changed in 1978 when the Jets opened the season at home for the first time since 1964 and played five games at Shea in September and October. For the remaining four years of their lease with the City at Shea, the Jets have been guaranteed at least four early season home games.

Hess and Martin have been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963. Mrs. Dillon, daughter of former club president Donald C. Lillis, assumed the post of vice president and secretary in 1968 upon the death of her father and has been an active member ever since.

LEON HESS, chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate affairs, is chairman and chief executive officer of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He is a respected member of the board of directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, vice president and treasurer, is an internationally known owner and breeder of thoroughbred horses and also an honored member of the Jockey Club. He is engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he is now a member of the board of directors.

MRS. HELEN DILLON, vice president, is a vivacious and enthusiastic fan who is in regular attendance at every Jets' game and function. She has become one of the most respected and knowledgeable woman executives in sports and is the first woman on the board of directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. Mrs. Dillon was honored in 1977 by that organization for her contributions to football. She resides in Cos Cob, Conn., with her husband, Dr. Thomas F. Dillon.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his first three seasons with the Jets, Kensil has stressed communication within the organization and has outlined everyone's responsibilities.

"What we've tried to do is make sure everybody knows his specific job and understands it," said Kensil, who is a member of the executive committee of the NFL Management Council.

Kensil had quite a few responsibilities as an administrator in the National Football League for 16 years. He had to move only several blocks from Park to Madison Avenue when he was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977.

For nine years prior to joining the Jets, Kensil had been executive director of the NFL, the man Pete Rozelle called "my offensive and defensive coordinator." For seven years before that, he was the NFL's public relations director.

Kensil succeeded Leon Hess, who had served as acting president of the Jets following the death of Phil Iselin in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions to pro football. He was one of the chief architects of the new NFL scheduling format that was introduced in 1978.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. After graduating in 1952, he went to work for the Associated Press in New York City on the sports and news desk before being drafted. He served in Germany and edited the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 and worked nearly two years in Columbus, Ohio, before coming back to the New York bureau where he covered general sports assignments, edited the teletypesetter Sports Wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on radio and television called "The Sports Dial." He left the AP in 1961 to join the NFL as public relations director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930, in Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 24, is traveling secretary for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 22 and Danny 18, and a daughter, Mary Jo 20.

WALT MICHAELS, Head Coach

For the past three seasons, Walt Michaels has not only been the head coach of the New York Jets, he's been an architect and laborer, too. The concepts for his blueprint have been developed through 25 years of professional football experience as a player and coach, yet most of his building materials have come fresh off the college assembly lines.

In the last four drafts (1976-79), New York added 24 players (16 of them starters) to the squad. In 1979 the Jets had the youngest team in the NFL for the second straight season. Even though the team became more competitive, the inexperience bred inconsistency and resulted in an 8-8 record that matched the 1978 mark. The 16 wins in two consecutive years were the second most in Jets' history, trailing only the 21 victories produced by the playoff teams of 1968 and 1969.

Michaels' construction project has not always progressed smoothly. After injuries to all-pro Wesley Walker and placekicker Pat Leahy, the young Jets suffered a midseason slump last year; but Michaels steadfastly held to his plan for the Jets' long-term stability and success.

"There have been other teams that tried to go the other way," Michaels noted. "They've got castoffs and troublemakers. I've got to go the route by building something solid. I don't want a prefab house. I want one put together brick by brick. Then you know it will last."

The solid nucleus has grown. Over half the veterans on the 1980 training camp roster have three or more years' experience with the Jets.

"Management likes Michaels' style and so does anybody who knows what type of man makes a good NFL coach," wrote Dave Anderson of The New York Times. "Walt Michaels might never equal the accomplishments of Vince Lombardi or Paul Brown or Don Shula or Tom Landry or Chuck Noll, but he is the same type—tough, firm, scholarly and committed to developing a foundation that will last beyond one good year or two.

"All the good coaches are tough," Anderson continued. "All the good coaches say something occasionally that offends a player or sometimes the entire team. But the strong players respond to criticism, the weak ones disappear."

The Jets responded to Michaels at the end of last season by winning their final three games, including one that eliminated the Patriots from the playoffs and another over the playoff-bound Dolphins, New York's fourth straight win against Miami.

"Walt Michaels kept us together....," said veteran tight end Jerome Barkum. "When you've got a ship out there that looks like it might be sinking, you want a navigator who's going to keep everyone's head above water. That's what Walt Michaels does for the Jets."

All-pro tackle Marvin Powell echoed Barkum's sentiments. "Walt respects you if you do the job," Powell said. "He doesn't bother you that much. He gives you a certain amount of leeway and treats you like a man. We're not pampered. He tells you what is wrong; he's honest."

The 50-year-old former Cleveland Brown great also has been praised by the opposition. In 1978 when the Jets swept both games from Miami for the first time since 1969, Bob Griese said, "I don't know Walt Michaels personally, but I have much respect for him. He's put things together in New York. From what I could gather about Michaels as a player, he had much character and hustle, and believe me, he's transmitted it to that Jets' team."

In 1977, Michaels' first year as head coach, the Jets did not improve their 3-11 record from the year before, but they regained respect throughout the league with their aggressive, hard-hitting style of play, particularly against some of the toughest teams in the NFL.

Michaels was rewarded with an extension of his contract before the 1978 season. "It's a simple matter of Walt doing the job," said club president Jim Kensil. "He has leadership quality. He's a hard worker. He's organized. And people believe in him. It's not just the players, it's the ownership."

In Michaels' second season at the helm, the Jets stayed in playoff contention until the 15th game of the season before losing in overtime at Cleveland. The Jets finished 8-8, their best record since 1974 and their most wins since 1969. They made the biggest improvement in the won-lost record of any team in the NFL, picking up five victories from 1977.

For the Jets' accomplishment, Michaels was named AFC coach of the year by the Pro Football Writers of America and UPI. He was selected NFL coach of the year by Pro Football Weekly and several other publications.

The son of Polish immigrants, Michaels' football philosophy was molded in the Pennsylvania coal mine country. "My father died when he was 54 and he understood two things about football," Michaels said. "If you hit, you win. And if you won, you were successful."

Michaels did a lot of hitting and winning as a linebacker for the Cleveland Browns from 1952-61. He played on two NFL championship teams, five divisional winners and made the Pro Bowl four straight years from 1957-60.

He was drafted in the seventh round by Cleveland in 1951 out of Washington & Lee, where he played fullback, guard and linebacker while earning a B.A. in psychology and education. The Browns traded Michaels that same year to Green Bay for Dan Orlich and then reacquired him in 1952 for Richard Logan, Elmer Costa and Forrest Grigg. Michaels became a starting linebacker and missed only two games in his 10-year career with Cleveland.

Michaels' toughness was transplanted into the defenses he coached in the pro ranks. He began as defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders in 1962 and joined the Jets the following year in a similar position under Weeb Ewbank.

For 10 years Michaels masterminded the growth of the Jets' defense, which became one of the most respected in the AFL and then AFC. Under his tutelage, such players as Gerry Philbin, John Elliott, Verlon Biggs, Al Atkinson, Larry Grantham and Ralph Baker were developed.

When Michaels first joined the Jets' staff, he came out of retirement for the 1963 opener at Boston when the Jets' linebacking corps was decimated by injuries. He played the entire game after not having practiced for two years.

Michaels devoted all his energy to coaching after his one-game "comeback." In 1967 he took over the secondary and linebackers and helped mold the Jets' 1968 defense into the number-one unit in the AFL against the rush and in total defense. In 1970, the unit again ranked on top in total defense as well as first against the rush in the AFC.

Michaels' finest hour came in Super Bowl III. Although the Jets' defense received little of the glamour in the stunning 16-7 upset victory, Michaels' men played a significant role by holding Baltimore scoreless until less than four minutes remained. The often maligned secondary of four free agents intercepted four Colt passes.

The game created an unusual situation for Walt's mother, Mary, who was chosen NFL mother of the year in 1966. On the Baltimore side was Walt's brother, Lou, a standout placekicker who played in the NFL from 1958-69 after earning All-America honors as a tackle at Kentucky.

Michaels remained with the Jets until 1973 when, with Charley Winner designated as the next head coach, he left to join the Eagles.

Michaels was defensive coordinator at Philadelphia for three seasons before returning to the Jets in 1976 to oversee the defense under Lou Holtz. He transformed the Jets' linebacking from the weakest spot on the squad to the strongest unit despite the fact that three of the starters were rookies, and only one, Greg Buttle, was a high draft choice.

Holtz resigned after the 13th game that season, and Michaels became the eighth head coach in Jets' history in January, 1977.

Michaels is another in the line of Paul Brown products to become head coach in the pros. Presently there are four others: Mike McCormack, Chuck Noll, Don Shula and Bill Walsh.

Although football dominates most of Michaels' life, he enjoys spending time on his farm in Swoyersville, Pa., where he relaxes by chopping wood, gardening and hunting.

In 1977 Michaels was named to the Commonwealth of Virginia and Long Island (N.Y.) sports halls of fame. In 1978 he was inducted into the ODK honorary fraternity at Washington & Lee for outstanding achievement and also was honored by the New York Press Photographers Association for his cooperation.

Michaels was born Oct. 16, 1929, in Swoyersville. He and his wife, Betty, have four children: Mary Ann 23; Walter, Jr., 21, a former All-East linebacker at Kutztown (Pa.) State who signed as a free agent with the Cleveland Browns this year; Mark 16 and Paul 12. They make their home in West Islip, N.Y.

Draft 1a, 1972

9th Season

PRO: "Jerome's a very steady player with great hands," Michaels said. "He started catching more balls after Wesley Walker was hurt. Jerome's an unselfish team leader. He's always off the bench hollering for the offense or defense. He enjoys playing the game."...after just seven receptions in his first seven appearances in 1979, he had 19 in the last six games to lead the club during that stretch...caught at least one pass in each of the final 11 games...won Pentax Jets' player of the week award at Seattle with six receptions for 103 yards...after the season opener missed next three games with a pulled hamstring, breaking a streak of 34 straight starts...the only Jet besides Randy Rasmusen to have played in over 100 games (102)...moved past George Sauer last year in career TD receptions (30) for the Jets behind Don Maynard (88) and Rich Caster (36)...his 180 points rank ninth among Jet career scoring leaders...stands fourth in both career receptions (223) and yards (3,483)...played wide receiver in his first five seasons...switched to tight end during the 1977 preseason when Caster moved out wide...led Jets in receiving in 1973 and made the Pro Bowl...topped club again in 1974...signed late as a rookie but still managed best seasonal average gain per catch (19.0) of his career...missed first 10 games of 1976 with a severely pulled hamstring.

COLLEGE: Caught 128 passes for 2,130 yards and 27 TDs in four-year career at Jackson State...had 10 TDs as a senior...was a teammate of Caster, now with Oilers...played in Senior Bowl and East-West Game...AP Little All-America...All-SWAC for two years.

PERSONAL: Wife Linda...daughter Laiysha 4...has degree in health and physical education...nicknamed "Gee"...cousin of former Detroit Lion Lem Barney...brother Melvin was a QB at Mississippi State...enjoys working with kids...did a show for Children's Television Workshop in New York City last season...was a standout all-around athlete at 33rd Ave. High in his birthplace and hometown of Gulfport, Miss...set school record with 30 rebounds in one basketball game.

RB 6-3 217 3/24/55

Miami (Fla.)

Free Agent, 1979 2nd Season

PRO: Appeared in 15 games last year primarily on special teams...did not play vs. Oakland...his first carry in the NFL was a one-yard TD run in the last game of the season at the Orange Bowl where he played in college...gained four yards in two attempts vs. Miami...caught one pass for nine yards at Seattle...also returned one kickoff for seven yards...he and Mike McKibben were the only rookie free agents to make the Jets' opening-day roster...lasted five weeks at training camp with Montreal Alouettes in 1979 before he was cut.

COLLEGE: Played two years (1976-77) at Miami (Fla.) where he was a blocking back for Ottis Anderson, the NFL rookie of the year in 1979...rushed for 164 yards in two seasons...was a defensive end at Arizona Western JC in 1974 and red-shirted in 1975...did not play in 1978...spent almost a year at a body-building camp in New Orleans because he wanted to play pro ball.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in physical education...was a wide receiver and defensive end at York High in his birthplace and hometown of York, Pa...captain and all-state...set school shot put record.

ADDITIONAL 1979 STATS: Fumbles/Lost: 1/1.

STANBlinka*54

LB 6-2 230 4/29/57

Sam Houston State

Draft 5b, 1979

2nd Season

PRO: "Stan had a great rookie year," Michaels said. "He was a fantastic No. 5 draft pick. He's very intelligent and has good tackling fundamentals. He always seems to be around the ball. Stan hit a midseason slump but came on strong at the end."...started training camp as the fifth-string middle linebacker and finished the year as the Jets' leading tackler and the NFL all-rookie MLB (Pro Football Writers of America, UPI and Pro Football Weekly)...had 122 solo tackles and 105 assists... was one of four rookie starters on defense...enjoyed auspicious debut vs. Cleveland with 24 stops (13 unassisted)... the Jets' season high...either led or tied for team tackling lead in 12 of 16 games... made 22 tackles at Baltimore and 17 before hometown fans at Houston...was involved in at least 11 tackles in 14 games... received Pentax Jets' player of the week award vs. Minnesota when he made a diving interception late in the game to halt a drive...also had interception vs. Detroit...recovered fumbles at New England and Seattle...blocked PAT at Buffalo...saved win at Miami when he knocked ball out of Don Strock's hand (recovered by Burgess Owens) on the Jet 10-yard line with 36 seconds remaining...played first two preseason games at outside LB but moved to middle vs. Pittsburgh when Mike Hennigan sprained his knee...responded with 10 solo tackles...took over as starting MLB vs. the Giants...Jets used two picks obtained in Carl Barzilauskas trade with Green Bay (1978) to draft Blinka and Johnny Lynn.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter, three-time All-Lone Star Conference, three-time honorable mention NAIA All-America and senior co-captain at Sam Houston State...was 205-pound stand-up defensive end as a freshman...bulked up to 243 pounds ("thanks to my mom's strawberry malts") by the next season and moved to MLB...qualified for NAIA championships three times in the discus and finished as high as sixth.

PERSONAL: Wife Kathy...his demeanor and appearance off the field belie his aggressiveness on the field...wears glasses and is very quiet and mild-mannered...has degree in business...spent offseason studying for M.B.A. at Sam Houston State...also helped coached the track team...played tackle and in the defensive line at Rockdale High in his hometown of Rockdale, Tex.... won state discus title...was planning to be a carpenter before receiving his only scholarship offer from Sam Houston State... participated in Punt, Pass & Kick...birthplace: Columbus, Ohio.

1979 STATS: Interceptions: 2, 12 yards, 6.0 avg., 8 LG, 0 TD. Opp. fumbles recovered: 2, Games played/started: 16/16.

Stan is my kind of people. He's got inner toughness, and he doesn't flaunt it. He's an example of football instincts paying off. He doesn't look like a middle linebacker with those glasses. But who knows, he might be Clark Kent. — Walt Michaels

LB 6-3 232 6/20/54
Penn State
Draft 3, 1976 5th Season

PRO: "Greg has developed into a team leader," Michaels said. "Last year was his most consistent year. He deserved to be in the Pro Bowl. He was a settling influence alongside two rookie linebackers. Greg's still our 'big play' man. His biggest assets are speed, intelligence and a tremendous enthusiasm for the game. He enjoys playing. He has excellent hands and is good on pass defense." "...started all 16 games at left linebacker last year despite a pulled groin and other nagging injuries...was named first team all-pro by Sports Illustrated and N.Y. Daily News...selected second team All-AFC by Newark Star-Ledger...tied Clark Gaines for runnerup in Jets' MVP voting by teammates...one of the hardest hitters in the NFL...finished second on the club with 159 tackles (101 solos)...has very quick reactions...earned game ball in win over Detroit when he paced Jets with 11 unassisted tackles despite having lost 11 pounds during the week due to a stomach virus...was named Pentax Jets' player of the week at New England with 14 tackles...made game-saving interception on Jets' 24-yard line with 24 seconds to play at Green Bay...returned interception 27 yards and had key QB sack vs. Oakland...has started every game in which he's played...missed second half of 1978 season with a sprained right knee...has scored two TDs in his career, a 44-yard interception return in 1977 and a 23-yard fumble return, both vs. New England at Shea...made every NFL all-rookie team four years ago when he led the Jets in tackles...was chosen the Jet rookie of the year by N.Y. writers.

COLLEGE: "Buttle is as fine a linebacker as any prospect produced by this school, including Jack Ham, Dave Robinson, Doug Allen and Jim Laslavic," said Penn State coach Joe Paterno...consensus All-America...played in last Chicago College All-Star Game...also appeared in Sugar, Cotton, Orange, Japan and Hula bowls...was defensive captain as a senior when he was named New Jersey college athlete of the year.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in arts and sciences...makes year-round home in Pt. Lookout on Long Island...did promotion for ASPCA last year (has a black Labrador named Backer)...represented Jets in public service TV spot for United Way in 1977...enjoys paddleball, fishing, scuba diving and rowing...sang in a barbershop quartet at Penn State and still occasionally sings...father Thomas was FBI agent...brother Toby played football at Navy...was named best athlete in South Jersey at Mainland Regional High where he was all-state in football, all-county in basketball and a track standout...also acted in school plays...birthplace: Atlantic City, N.J....hometown: Linwood, N.J.

Buttle is a fiery guy and a decision maker, the right type for leadership....We're at the stage now where Greg is taking on that role. A true leader is worth points out there — just like the home advantage is worth points. — Walt Michaels

Penn State

Free Agent, 1979 3rd Season

PRO: Signed with Jets as free agent on Sept. 26 after being released by New Orleans...played in remaining 12 games and finished fourth among special teams leaders...replaced injured Mike McKibben at outside linebacker for half of the New England game at Shea...originally fifth round draft pick of Detroit in 1977...sat out rookie year with a knee injury...joined Saints as free agent in 1978 and appeared in 14 games as special teamer...was placed on injured reserve with sprained ankle during 1979 preseason and was finally waived by Saints on Sept. 12.

COLLEGE: Defensive co-captain and two-year starter at defensive end for Penn State...played in Orange, Cotton, Sugar and Gator bowls...named outstanding defensive player in Hula Bowl...played with Greg Buttle in 1975.

PERSONAL: Wife Kathy...has degree in health and physical education...was substitute teacher during offseason...brother Tom played football at University of Pittsburgh...captain and all-state at South Allegheny High in his birthplace of McKeesport, Pa... hometown: Glassport, Pa.

PRO CAREER STATS: Games played/started: 1977 (injured), 1978 (N.O.-14/0), 1979 (JETS-12/0). Own fumbles recovered: 2 (1 in 1979).

ERIC

Cunningham 68

G 6-3 257 3/16/57

Penn State

Draft 4a, 1979 2nd Season

PRO: "Eric didn't get too much of a chance to play during the regular season, but he has the potential to become a starter," Michaels said. "His biggest asset is pass protection, which is unusual for someone right out of college"...appeared in 11 games primarily on special teams...started opener vs. Cleveland at right guard in place of injured Dan Alexander...has good speed and quick feet.

COLLEGE: Two-year starting guard at Penn State...played in Sugar, Fiesta and Senior bowls as well as East-West Game...honorable mention All-East in 1978...played with Jets' tight end Mickey Shuler.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in recreation and parks...has the largest helmet (8¾) in Jet history...spent offseason working with National Alliance of Businessmen Youth Motivation Task Force in Akron, Ohio, which is aimed at helping students choose careers...also worked part-time for recreation department...football and wrestling captain at Akron South High...won state wrestling title as junior and was second as senior...birthplace and hometown: Akron, Ohio.

WR 5-10 192 10/22/56
Southwest Texas State
Draft 12, 1979 2nd Season

PRO: The first last round draft pick ever to make the Jets...appeared in 15 games on special teams...missed Chicago game with pulled groin...was usually the first man downfield on punt coverage...showed great second effort...set up field goal vs. Colts at Shea with fumble recovery on kickoff coverage...fielded one punt at Houston...was converted from college running back to wide receiver because of his outstanding speed and hands...his 62-yard catch vs. Steelers in preseason helped him make the squad.

COLLEGE: Rushed for 909 yards as a senior tailback at Southwest Texas State...was also used as flanker...set school record with 287 yards on 23 carries vs. Prairie View...selected second team All-Lone Star Conference...played against Jet linebacker Stan Blinka at Sam Houston State...career rushing totals: 290 for 1,442 yards, 4.9 avg...earned four football letters and three in track...ran 100 yards in 9.6 seconds.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in physical education...studied at S.W. Texas State in offseason...cousin of Edgar Fields, defensive lineman for Atlanta...captain and all-district in football at Johnson High in his birthplace and hometown of Austin, Tex.

SCOTT
Dierking

25

RB 5-10 215 5/24/55
Purdue
Draft 4, 1977 4th Season

PRONOUNCED: DIR-king.

PRO: "Scott played a big role in our rushing success last year," Michaels said. "He contributes in all phases. His blocking continues to improve, he catches the ball well and he's one of our most consistent ball carriers. Scott's an intelligent, team-oriented player who works hard..."...enjoyed the finest season of his career in 1979 when Jets led NFL in rushing for first time ever...finished second on the team in rushing for the third consecutive year...his 767 yards ranked 10th among AFC rushing leaders and was the ninth best season in Jet history...fumbled just once in 186 carries...combined with Clark Gaines for more yards on the ground (1,672) than any pair of running backs in Jet annals, breaking the mark of 1,635 that Dierking established with Kevin Long in 1978...rushed for over 90 yards in three games (97 at Buffalo, 94 vs. Cleveland and 93 vs. New England at Shea)...named Pentax Jets' player of the week for effort vs. Browns when he had 40-yard spurt, the longest of his career...his eight-yard gain on fourth down and two enabled the Jets to run out the clock in win over Patriots...also had longest reception of his career (27 yards) vs. N.E....had 85 yards, including 13-yard TD, vs. Oakland...was selected most popular Jet by the CYO of New York...moved up to sixth in Jets' career rushing with 1,763 yards...has been a starter since midway through his rookie season when he was switched from fullback to halfback...started the last five contests...did not carry ball until eighth game of season...rushed for a career high of 107 yards vs. Pittsburgh, the best effort by a Jet in 1977...was not a good blocker as a rookie but worked on it during offseason and became a bruising hitter...has missed only one game in three years (at Miami in 1978 with sprained ankle)...a powerful runner with a low center of gravity...keeps his feet peddling for extra yardage...build and style of running similar to those of former Jet Mike Adamle, who was Dierking's idol at Northwestern while he was in high school.

COLLEGE: Second leading career rusher at Purdue behind Otis Armstrong...gained 2,863 yards, including 1,000 as a senior...only runner besides Armstrong to lead Boilermakers in rushing three straight years...chosen second team All-America by AP and Football News...first team All-Big Ten, team MVP and co-captain as a senior...led Purdue to upset of No. 1 ranked Michigan with 162 yards rushing...played in East-West Game; Hula and Japan bowls.

PERSONAL: Single...earned degree in economics...nick-named "Coke Machine" for his squatty physique...helped last year at Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...has played in Brian Piccolo Cancer Research Golf Tourney in Chicago for two years...loves hunting and fishing...All-America at West Chicago High where he gained 2,725 yards and scored 42 TDs...state wrestling champ as a senior...father Ed also wore No. 25 when he starred at West Chicago High and won same MVP award in 1951 that Scott received in 1972...participated in Punt, Pass & Kick...birthplace: Great Lakes Naval Base, Ill....hometown: West Chicago, Ill.

Maybe if my name were Flash Cutback and Clark's (Gaines) was Tyrone Peacock, then people would remember our names. We'll break as many tackles as a big guy and block as well or better....I don't think people realize just what it takes to lead this league in rushing. — Scott Dierking

DONALD Dykes

CB 5-11 188 8/24/55
Southeastern Louisiana
Draft 3, 1979 2nd Season

PRO: "Donald has the potential to become a starter," Michaels said. "He's a good kick blocker and a tough kid. His biggest asset is speed."...one of the fastest players on the Jets...runs 40 in 4.4 seconds...played in all 16 games and started first two at right cornerback after beating out veteran Ed Taylor...was replaced by Johnny Lynn during second game...spent rest of year as special teamer and extra back in obvious passing situations... finished seventh among special teams leaders...blocked two punts, one vs. Cleveland and another against Dolphins at Shea that was recovered by Lynn in end zone for TD...blocked PAT at Chicago and field goal at Miami...aggressiveness also resulted in two roughing-the-kicker penalties...in preseason blocked punt at Houston and field goal vs. Pittsburgh...both were returned for Jet TDs...was fourth defensive back chosen in draft.

COLLEGE: A four-year letterman in both football and track at Southeastern Louisiana...had a track scholarship and was walk-on in football...blocked 12 kicks and picked off six interceptions in his career...four-time track All-America...set school and Louisiana record with leap of 26-2½ in long jump, which was the 17th best in the world in 1977...was NAIA indoor long jump champion as a freshman and NCAA Division II outdoor titleholder as a sophomore...also excelled in triple jump (best of 53-3).

PERSONAL: Single...majored in criminal justice...studied at Southeastern Louisiana during offseason...helped coach track team...also entered several open meets...football and track standout at Hammond High in his hometown of Hammond, La....birthplace: Independence, La.

Donald adds another aspect to our offensive arsenal. He has an extraordinary sixth sense enabling him to block kicks. He is just able to anticipate the center's snap, which gives him a split-second advantage. — Assistant coach Joe Gardi

87

WR 6-3 195 11/10/55
Baker (Kan.)
Free Agent, 1979 2nd Season

PRO: Was active for last seven games and appeared in four after re-signing as free agent on Oct. 31...played in final three contests with a broken wrist which X-rays didn't reveal until after season...used exclusively on special teams...initially signed as free agent with Baltimore in 1978 but was cut during preseason...joined Jets as a free agent in 1979 and was waived on Aug. 20.

COLLEGE: Played two years at Baker University in Baldwin, Kan., after transferring from Eastern Arizona JC, where he also played basketball...named All-America in 1977 when he set three school records with 59 catches, 1,216 yards and 19 TDs...was all-conference in 1976 and 1977.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in communications...has worked as a carpenter...went to Thomas Jefferson High in his hometown of Brooklyn, N.Y....birthplace: Barbados, West Indies.

JOE

Fields

65

C 6-2 253 11/14/53
Widener
Draft 14, 1975 6th Season

PRO: "Joe has become one of the best centers in the league," Michaels said. "Last season was his finest. He's intelligent, great on the long snap and very tough when playing against a man on his nose."...graded highest among Jet offensive linemen for the second straight year...started 15 games in 1979 when Jets led NFL in rushing for first time ever...called "the most underrated player on the team" by offensive line coach Bob Fry. "Joe's not the biggest center around, but he has good quickness and strength. He's extra smart on making line calls. But his biggest asset is durability."...missed his only game in five years at Green Bay last season with a shoulder injury he suffered making a tackle on an interception return at Houston...broke his string of 49 consecutive starts...started the remaining six games but did not make snaps on punts...made snaps on placements in last four contests...has one of the fastest and most accurate snaps in the league (between .7 and .8 seconds to the punter)...classic example of determined player who has made himself good...was given little chance of making the team as a 14th round pick out of tiny Widener, particularly when he showed up at rookie camp with baby fat...spent countless hours lifting weights and practicing snaps to his wife and father...remains one of the most dedicated weightlifters on the team.

COLLEGE: Never missed a play at Widener (Chester, Pa.) despite contused shoulder and sprained ankle as a senior...all-conference in 1974...called blocking assignments for offensive line...played with Billy "White Shoes" Johnson...gained 25 pounds between his junior and senior years because he wanted to be pro center...originally enrolled at Rutgers-Camden, which didn't have a football team, but was persuaded to transfer by Widener coach Bill Manlove.

PERSONAL: Wife Kay (her sister is married to former Jet Garry Puetz, now with New England)...has degree in accounting...spent offseason in training program with Chemical Bank on Long Island...makes year-round home in Pt. Lookout, L.I....very active in public service activities...made appearance for the Boys Scouts' membership enrollment drive earlier this year...has done volunteer work with several community hospitals and blood centers...last year helped with Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...participated in "Fire Safety for the Handicapped" program sponsored by No Greater Love and Eastern Paralyzed Veterans Association...did not start until his senior year at Gloucester (N.J.) Catholic High, where he weighed 185 pounds...birthplace: Woodbury, N.J....hometown: Deptford, N.J.

PRO CAREER STATS: Jet fumbles recovered: 1 in 1977. Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1975. Games played/started: 1975 (14/0), 1976 (14/10), 1977 (14/14), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (15/15).

I've always realized how far you get behind in the business world while you're playing pro football. You can come out cold in five years without a position and not a lot of money. All of a sudden, you're a rookie in the business world, and the guys you graduated with from college are veterans in the business world.

— Joe Fields, one of several Jets involved in offseason training programs with businesses in the New York City area.

DERRICK

Gaffney

81

WR 6-1 180 5/24/55

Florida

Draft 8a, 1978

3rd Season

PRO: "Derrick is a lot like George Sauer," Michaels said. "He's not as big, but he has that knack of getting open when the quarterback is trapped or scrambling. Even though Derrick had some injury problems (Achilles tendon) last year, he worked his way through them and was in over 90 per cent of the offensive plays. He took up a lot of the slack with Wesley (Walker) gone. Derrick is a disciplined receiver. He has great hands and runs precise routes."...led the Jets with 32 catches and was second to Walker with 534 yards receiving...scored only TD of season (13 yards) in win over Patriots...started every game for the second straight year...caught at least one pass in 15 games, including the last 13 in a row...best day was vs. Detroit (4 for 104 yards, including his longest reception of season, 43 yards)...finished second to Walker in 1978 with 38 receptions, which broke Walker's record for most catches (35) by a Jet rookie WR...his development during 1978 training camp was one reason Jets were able to trade Rich Caster...earned game ball in win at Buffalo when he had five catches for 108 yards and one TD...does not possess blazing speed but is very elusive after making catch.

COLLEGE: Played in the shadow of his close friend Wes Chandler, who was the third player chosen in the 1978 draft (New Orleans)...while a freshman at Florida, helped recruit Chandler in high school...was redshirted as a sophomore...broke into starting lineup midway through senior year when Chandler was moved to running back...tied NCAA record and broke Southeastern Conference mark with 99-yard reception vs. Rice...finished second to Chandler in receiving both as a junior (16, 279 yards, 17.4 avg., 0 TD) and as a senior (14, 319, 22.8, 2).

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in journalism...helped coordinate a youth job program in Jacksonville, Fla., during offseason...comes from a family of fine athletes...brother Johnny is a junior receiver at Florida...brothers Warren (1976-78) and Don (1973-75) also played for the Gators...brother Reginald played baseball at Florida A&M...three-sport standout at Raines High in his birthplace and hometown of Jacksonville, Fla....Raines also produced Houston's Ken Burrough and Philadelphia's Harold Carmichael, who both worked out with Gaffney while he was growing up and taught him how to run pass routes.

CLARK

Gaines

21

RB 6-1 209 2/1/54

Wake Forest

Free Agent, 1976 5th Season

PRO: "Clark probably had his finest year last season," Michaels said. "He's one of our most unselfish players. Everything he does is team-oriented. When he's not running, he'll go on special teams. In short-yardage situations, he goes to flanker to block for the runner. Clark does everything but play defense and kick. He's a consistent, durable back and a team leader."...if the Jets gave a comeback player of the year award for 1979, Gaines probably would have been the unanimous choice...after losing his starting job in an injury-plagued 1978 season, he regained his 1976-77 form when he was the first Jet ever to lead the club in rushing and receiving twice...finished fourth among AFC rushing leaders with a career-high 905 yards, the fifth best season in Jets' history...fumbled only once in 186 carries...tied for AFC lead with an average of 4.9 yards per attempt...combined with Scott Dierking for more yards rushing (1,672) than any pair of running backs in Jet history, breaking the mark of 1,635 set by Dierking and Kevin Long in 1978...was the only Jet to rush for over 100 yards in a game last year with a career best of 125 at Green Bay, including his longest NFL run, 52 yards, also the Jets' longest in 1979...received a game ball plus the Pentax Jets' player of the week award...also was Pentax winner for his 92-yard effort in win vs. Miami at Shea...started just three of the first nine games before becoming first string in the final seven...showed his consistency by leading Jets in rushing in seven of the last eight contests...did not score a TD all season mainly because he was used as a blocker on short-yardage plays...finished second on club with 29 receptions...tied Greg Buttle for runnerup in Jets' MVP voting by teammates...was cited in The Sporting News as the best running back in the AFC East and also for the most individual offensive improvement in the division...ranks fifth among Jets' career rushing leaders with 2,378 yards...was used sparingly behind Kevin Long in 1978 when he was nagged by foot and shoulder injuries...still appeared in all 16 games and finished third in special teams statistics...played at the lightest weight of his career, 194 pounds...worked long hours during offseason and built himself up to 210 for 1979...finished third in the NFL in receiving in 1977 with 55 catches, the second best ever by a Jet running back (Matt Snell had 56 in 1964) and the most by a Jet in nine years...was a Horatio Alger story in 1976 when he was the first rookie ever selected as Jets' MVP after signing as a free agent and barely making the team...led all NFL rookie runners with 724 yards despite not starting until the seventh game...set a Jets' season record with four 100-yard rushing games (119 at Buffalo, 109-Washington, 103-Tampa Bay, 102-Baltimore)...ran for 103 yards at New Orleans in 1977...made every NFL all-rookie team and was selected AFC Offensive Rookie of the Year by NFL Players Association...an intimidating blocker with great balance...his desire, intelligence and second-effort make up for lack of outstanding speed.

COLLEGE: Might have been overlooked in draft because of injuries...gained 1,258 yards on 336 carries (3.7 avg.) in two years at Wake Forest...was All-Atlantic Coast Conference and captain as a senior...outstanding junior college runner at Lees-McRae (Banner Elk, N.C.)...rushed for 1,105 yards as a sophomore, second in the nation...named NJCAA All-America.

PERSONAL: Wife Kathryn...daughter Leslie Kia 4...has B.S. in physical education...served as assistant player representative...lived on Long Island during offseason and worked for Census Bureau...last year helped with Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...also has worked with Special Olympics...held two jobs in college while supporting his wife and daughter...was born and raised in Elberton, Ga., with six brothers and one sister...his father died of a lung disease from working in the granite quarries when Gaines was 16...was one of 13 blacks to volunteer to integrate Elbert County High.

MARK

Gastineau 99

DE 6-5 270 11/20/56

East Central (Okla.)

Draft 2, 1979

2nd Season

PRO: "Mark showed the ability to become an outstanding pass rusher," Michaels said. "He's picking up the pro game. Last season he was our 'designated pass rusher.' He played both ends and gave us the best overall pass rush percentage (QB pressures/plays). Mark got better against the run as the year went on. He has great pursuit and outstanding speed." "...the fastest Jet lineman...was clocked in 4.58 seconds in the 40...played in all 16 games in 1979 and started at left defensive end vs. Detroit...was utilized often in passing situations...had one QB sack in each New England game...finished second to Joe Klecko with 49 QB pressures...made 41 tackles (17 solos) for the year...gained solid 15 pounds during offseason by working out with former world-weightlifting champion John Cole.

COLLEGE: Gained attention of pro scouts with his performance in Senior Bowl when he was selected the North's outstanding defensive lineman (Marty Lyons, Jets' No. 1 draft pick in 1979, earned same honor for the South)...was first player from East Central (Ada, Okla.) ever selected for Senior Bowl...also was first player ever drafted from his school (teammate Clifford Thrift was picked in third round and made the Chargers)...had 27 QB sacks in two years...originally played at Eastern Arizona JC in 1975 and Arizona State in 1976 before transferring...selected all-conference, NAIA All-District Nine and honorable mention NAIA All-America as a senior...earned two letters in track as shot put (conference champ and school record holder) and discus specialist.

PERSONAL: Was married (wife Lisa) last December...majored in Spanish...worked on land he owns in his hometown of Springerville, Ariz., during offseason...father Ernie was a professional heavyweight boxer...three-sport standout at Round Valley High in Springerville...collects Indian artifacts...birthplace: Ardmore, Okla.

BRUCE
Harper
42

RB-KR 5-8 177 6/20/55
Kutztown (Pa.) State
Free Agent, 1977 4th Season

PRO: "Bruce is our most productive all-around performer," Michaels said. "He had another good season. His return average fell a bit possibly because of the rule change (eliminating blocking below the waist on punt and kickoff returns); but toward the end he came back, particularly at Miami when he had his finest game. He's a competitive blocker for his size and a good receiver. Bruce gives us a change of pace running out of the backfield."...led the AFC in all-purpose yardage (rushing, receiving, returns) for the third straight year with 1,980...was second in NFL to Eagles' Wilbert Montgomery (2,012)...received game ball and Pentax Jets' player of the week award at Miami when he accounted for 237 total yards, including the longest reception of his career (and Jets' longest of 1979), a 72-yard TD from Richard Todd...also had his longest kickoff return of the year (52 yards) to set up Jets' first TD...his other TD catch was at Green Bay...tied the NFL record he set in 1978 with 55 kickoff returns...led league in kickoff return yardage (1,158)...his longest punt return of the season (51 yards) came at Houston, where he had a personal high of 92 punt return yards in one game...broke his own Jet record with 204 yards on kickoff returns at New England...holds eight other Jets' records...most kickoff returns in a game (8, twice), season (55 in 1978 and 1979) and career (152)...kickoff return yards in a season (1,280 in 1978, third most in NFL history) and career (3,473)...most punt returns (97) and punt return yardage (1,093) in a career...most punt return yards in a season (425 in 1977)...led NFL in all-purpose yardage in 1978 (2,157) when he set NFL record for combined punt and kickoff return yardage (1,658), breaking Chuck Latourette's 1968 mark of 1,582...ranked third in NFL in punt return average (12.60)...his 82-yard punt return for TD vs. Buffalo at Shea was third longest in Jets' history and tied for longest in NFL in 1978...was third on team with 303 yards rushing and had best average gain (5.2)...ranks 10th among Jets' all-time leading rushers with 783 yards...led AFC in all-purpose yardage with 1,867 as a free agent in 1977 when he was named pro rookie of the year by N.J. Sportswriters Association...has played in every game for three seasons...his only two starts came as a rookie when he also saw action at wide receiver.

COLLEGE: Was recommended to Jets by Walt Michaels' son, Walter, Jr., who played with Harper at Kutztown (Pa.) State... honorable mention Little All-America in 1976 when he was first back in school's history to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,132)... three-year rushing total of 2,169 yards...no player from Kutztown has ever been drafted...only other Kutztown player in NFL was Doug Dennison, who made the Cowboys as free agent.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in social welfare...studied at Bergen (N.J.) Community College in offseason...leads the Jets in tickets requested for home games, where he is supported by large cheering section of family and friends from his hometown and birthplace, Englewood, N.J....football and track standout at Dwight Morrow High, where he was a friend of John Travolta.

I think you have to be a certain type of person to play, say quarterback or linebacker. But returning kicks is even more so. You either have no sense, no regard for your body or you're so damn cocky you don't think you can be hurt. Take your pick...I don't know where I fit in. — Bruce Harper

BOBBY

Jackson

40

CB 5-9 175 12/23/56

Florida State

Draft 6a, 1978

3rd Season

PRO: "Bobby is becoming one of the finest cornerbacks in the league," Michaels said. "He's very quick and really goes to the ball. He's a hard hitter for his size (led Jets with four forced fumbles). Bobby matured a lot last year."...tied Johnny Lynn for team lead with 16 passes defended and was second with four interceptions...started every game at left cornerback for the second consecutive season...finished 10th on squad with 88 tackles (58 solos)...awarded game ball vs. Miami at Shea when he picked off Bob Griese's pass and raced 58 yards for TD to give Jets 26-10 lead...it was the fourth longest interception return in Jet history...other interceptions came at Baltimore and Houston and vs. Oakland...was consensus NFL all-rookie in 1978 when he tied for club lead with five interceptions, the most by a Jet rookie since 1960...one of the fastest defensive backs on the team...has run 40 in 4.42 seconds...also has good jumping ability...Jets drafted him with sixth round pick obtained from Buffalo for Billy Newsome in 1977 trade.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman...set Florida State career record with 10 interceptions...returned 30 punts for 10.5 average...honorable mention All-America as senior when team won Tangerine Bowl.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in criminology...lived on Long Island during offseason...nicknamed "Bojack"...helped last year with Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...credits jumping ability to hitching rides on the back of garbage trucks while growing up in Albany, Ga., also his birthplace...tried out for junior high football team but played in the band because coach said he was too small...went on to earn all-state honors as a CB and WR at Albany High.

Syracuse

Free Agent, 1979 2nd Season

PRO: "Dave came through for us in some tough situations last year," Michaels said. "He's earned the right to compete in training camp. He has a strong leg..."...will battle Pat Leahy for the placekicking spot...gave the Jets stability in the final four games last year after the team had suffered from inconsistent kicking following Leahy's knee injury before the seventh game of the season...booted three field goals (28, 27, 42) in win vs. Colts...42-yarder was Jets' longest in 1979...awarded game ball when he kicked two FGs against the Patriots, including a 25-yarder with 1:57 to go that proved to be winning points...finished 5-9 on FGs and 10-11 on PATs...needs better distance on kickoffs...was involved in one of the most bizarre plays last year on PAT attempt at Miami when he scooped up bad snap, scrambled while eluding several Dolphin linemen and completed a 40-yard floater to John Hennessy in end zone only to have play nullified by offsetting penalties...originally drafted in 12th round by Denver last year...was claimed on waivers by Jets on July 25 and released on Aug. 6...signed with Patriots four days later, placed on injured reserve (Aug. 15) with groin injury and released on Sept. 10...re-signed with Jets as free agent on Nov. 19, replacing Toni Linhart.

COLLEGE: Syracuse's all-time leading scorer with 234 points...holds every school kicking record...53 FGs tied for second on NCAA career FGs list...provided margin of victory six times with FGs...longest was 58 yards...booted 54 consecutive PATs...kicked record eight PATs in East-West Shrine Game...first team All-ECAC four times and honorable mention All-America as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in speech communications...was honorary chairman of United Way drive while attending Syracuse...was all-state kicker at George Washington High in his hometown of Philadelphia...parents moved family business to Syracuse so they could see him play...birthplace: Scranton, Pa.

No College
Free Agent, 1978 3rd Season

PRO: "Bobby really came into his own last year," Michaels said. "He made some great catches and proved he can be a capable backup at either flanker or split end. He also does a good job on special teams."...one of the most pleasant surprises for the Jets last year...had an outstanding average of 19.9 yards per catch (19 for 379 yards)...also returned seven kickoffs for 140 yards...started the last seven games in place of injured Wesley Walker, the first time he had started since playing semipro for the Sharon (Pa.) Old Express in the Mid-Atlantic Coast Conference in 1976...earned the Pentax Jets' player of the week twice, first at Chicago when he had seven receptions (a Jets' season high) for 99 yards...also won camera for his performance vs. Buffalo at Shea when he caught three for 51 yards, including his first TD in the NFL...grabbed four for 99 yards vs. Colts at Shea...team gave him special award for his first start at Green Bay...his longest catch of the season, a diving 51-yarder at Miami, set up winning TD...suffered from ankle injury during first half of 1979...was active for opener but did not play...placed on injured reserve on Sept. 5 and missed next five games...was waived on Oct. 12 and re-signed the next day as free agent...appeared in next two games on special teams...played almost exclusively on special teams as a rookie when he caught just one pass...only the fifth player in Jets' history to make the squad without college experience.

PERSONAL: Wife Cheryl...a true Cinderella story...was a 160-pound quarterback and defensive back at Brookfield (Ohio) High...enrolled at Millikin (Decatur, Ill.) but left after two weeks because he was homesick...later attended Youngstown State...got a job as a mechanic at Toby Gibson's Auto Body Shop in Brookfield...played for semipro team, Shenango Valley (Pa.) Blasters (which later became Sharon Old Express), in 1975 and part of 1976 before team folded...got a tryout with the Jets because a friend, Bill Kushner (who wrote the book "My Son Joe" with Joe Namath's mother), knew Jets' scout Carroll Huntress...paid his own way to camp in July, 1977, and impressed everyone with his speed...Jets couldn't sign him because his college class wouldn't graduate until 1978...drove home in his 1970 Thunderbird and got a job working on schoolbus engines...tried out again in May, 1978, ran the 40 in 4.55 and signed as a free agent...nephew of Tom Jones, former player with Cubs and Indians...is third cousin of former Dodger great Carl Furillo...helped last year with Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...birthplace: Sharon, Pa...hometown: Brookfield, Ohio.

On the first day of training camp last year, each player stood and gave his name, college and position. Jones, a former mechanic who didn't play college ball, got up and said: "Bobby Jones, Texaco Tech, wide receiver."

JOE

73

DE-DT 6-3 265 10/15/53

Temple

Draft 6, 1977

4th Season

PRO: "I look at Klecko and the words 'pass rusher' jump into my mind," Michaels said. "It's his incredible quickness and the strength of his hands. If he gets a quarterback in his grasp, he's down. Joe made the adjustment to inside last year. He can still play defensive end as well. He was bothered by several injuries but still did a good job for us, particularly with his excellent pursuit..."one of the most durable pass rushers in the NFL... started every game at RDT in the 4-3 alignment last year after starting all 16 contests at RDE in 1978 when Jets used 3-4...selected second team All-AFC by UPI for second straight year...was alternate to Pro Bowl...had seven QB sacks to lead the club for the third consecutive season...was leading tackler among Jets' defensive linemen with 111 stops (70 unassisted) and fourth overall on team...Jets were third in NFL against the run... had more than twice as many QB pressures (100) as anybody on team... named Jets' player of the week by Pentax for his performances at Houston when he had a season-high 14 QB pressures and vs. New England at Shea when he had 10 QB pressures, nine tackles and a QB sack...earned game ball in win vs. Colts with two sacks and a key blocked punt with 54 seconds left in the first half that set up a TD...it was the first time he had been used on punt team all season and was the first blocked punt of his career...has had two blocked FGs (at Balt.-1977, at Clev.-1978) and two blocked PATs (Miami, at N.E., both in 1978)...made a game-saving play at Green Bay last year when he smothered QB David Whitehurst with 24 seconds left, forcing an underthrown pass that was intercepted by Greg Buttle on Jet 24...played vs. Miami at Shea despite being hospitalized during the week with an infected ankle...suffered sprained ankle at Seattle but returned to play in second half...did not start until ninth game in 1977 but still had more QB sacks (eight) than any NFL rookie...had a career-high three QB sacks vs. Buffalo at Shea...played LDT in 4-3 defense...put together streak of at least one sack in 10 consecutive games (last six of 1977 and first four of 1978)...personally drew five holding penalties against Bills' offensive line at Buffalo in 1978...matched rookie total of eight QB sacks that year...Jets drafted him in sixth round before Eagles, who had planned to pick him next.

COLLEGE: Played middle guard at Temple where he was both All-East and AP honorable mention All-America twice...was scouted by Walt Michaels when Owls almost upset Penn State in Klecko's junior year...was two-time ECAC club heavyweight boxing champion...lost only once in 35 amateur bouts.

PERSONAL: Wife Debbie...son Michael 4...during offseason appeared as truck driver in sequel to movie "Smokey and the Bandit" and in the film "Cannonball"...also worked as truck broker for Robbins Motor Transportation Inc. in Eddystone, Pa., and as a salesman for Davidson Supply Co., Inc. in Brooklyn...

went on NFL-USO Dept. of Defense tour of military outposts in Far East in 1978 and got a chance to drive a tank...passed up college for two years to drive a truck (specializing in heavy, oversized loads) after graduating from St. James High in Chester, Pa., where he played football only as a senior...also drag raced his '55 Chevy...played sandlot ball under assumed name Jim Jones for Aston (Pa.) Knights...was discovered by Temple's equipment man, John DiGregorio, who persuaded coach Wayne Hardin to offer Klecko a scholarship...used to work out at Joe Frazier's Cloverlay Gym in Philadelphia...once sparred with the ex-champ..."One of his punches that missed was enough to convince me not to become a professional boxer," Klecko said...birthplace and hometown: Chester, Pa.

PRO CAREER STATS: QB sacks: 23 (8-1977, 8-1978, 7-1979). Blocked PATs: 2 in 1978. Blocked FGs: 2 (1-1977, 1-1978). Blocked punts: 1 in 1979. Opp. fumbles recovered: 1 in 1978. Games played/started: 1977 (13/6), 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16).

I don't hate them (quarterbacks) as people. They're probably nice guys who brush their teeth and call mom once a week. I hate what quarterbacks stand for. They stand between me and success. —Joe Klecko

St. Louis

Free Agent, 1974 7th Season

PRO: "We're expecting Pat to return to his 1978 form," Michaels said. "He's worked hard on his rehabilitation..."suffered sprained knee while running pass pattern in practice before seventh game last season and missed the rest of the year...put on injured reserve (Oct. 13)...had been inconsistent in the first six games, missing three PATs and five FGs...finished with 12-15 PATs and 8-13 FGs...will be challenged by Dave Jacobs this season...enjoyed the finest year of his career in 1978 when he led AFC in scoring with 107 points, the fourth highest season total in Jet history and the fourth successive season he'd paced team in scoring...was first Jet since Jim Turner to lead AFC in FGs (22)...had highest FG percentage (.733, 22-30) of his career...was 41-42 on PATs (only miss was blocked)...was All-NFL (AP, Newark Star-Ledger), consensus All-AFC and barely missed making Pro Bowl...made 15 of first 17 FG attempts...did not miss from under 50 yards until 10th game...awarded game ball for three FGs vs. St. Louis, the team that originally cut him...ranks second to Turner in career FGs (75) and PATs (132) and fourth among Jet all-time leading scorers (357 points)...needs 28 points to pass Emerson Boozer behind Turner and Don Maynard...his last-minute FGs vs. Buffalo (1976) and New England (1977) gave Jets first wins...joined Jets in mid-1974 when Bobby Howfield was hurt...had tryout with Cardinals that year but couldn't unseat veteran Jim Bakken...Jets saw him during preseason game and kept him in mind.

COLLEGE: Four-year soccer letterman...no football experience...played on three NCAA championship teams in 1969, 1970 and 1972...voted outstanding defensive player in NCAA tourney as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Wife Colleen is a promising model...has degree in marketing and business administration...spent offseason in New York City rehabilitating...is active in hospital work...has helped Presbyterian Hospital in New York City and Deborah Hospital in Browns Mills, N.J., with fund-raising efforts...organizes annual Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...attended Augustinian Academy in his birthplace and hometown, St. Louis, Mo...an excellent guitar player.

PAT*Ryan*4

QB 6-3 205 9/16/55

Tennessee

Draft 11, 1978 3rd Season

PRO: "We showed confidence in Pat when we traded Matt Robinson," said Michaels, who named Ryan as No. 2 quarterback following Jets' deal with Denver. "He's capable of being a good quarterback because he understands the game, has a strong arm and appears to have leadership qualities. When he has had the opportunity to play, he's had the respect of the offensive team. He took command of the huddle. In case anything happens to Todd, Pat has to be ready to play."...has appeared in just three regular season games in the past two years...showed much potential in his preseason performances...completed 2 of 4 passes for 13 yards at New England in his only game last year...engineered two late scoring drives vs. Patriots (9 of 13, 106 yards) as a rookie and also played vs. Bills at Shea.

QB 6-2 203 11/19/53

Alabama

Draft 1, 1976

5th Season

PRO: "The biggest part of Richard's development last year came in the games we won without Wesley Walker," Michaels said. "He began calling his own plays toward the end and emerged as the team leader we expected him to be as a No. 1 draft choice. With Wesley gone, he learned to throw in the intermediate range and to find other receivers. Richard overcame adversity last year and matured. He's beginning to understand how to move the football and to take what the defense gives him, whether it's rushing or passing. He has learned to use his offense."...following two frustrating years when his progress was hampered by injuries. Todd had the best season of his career in 1979...started the last 15 games, his most consecutive starts as a pro (37 starts in four years)...passed for 2,660 yards, the highest by a Jet since Joe Namath's 2,816 in 1972 and the seventh best season in club history...led the NFL with an average of 7.96 yards gained per pass attempt...his 16 TDs were the most by a Jet since Namath's 20 in 1974...had more rushing TDs (five) than any QB in the league...his 6-1 record at Shea was the best by any Jet QB since Namath had same mark in 1968...brought the Jets from behind in six of eight victories, three of them after Walker was sidelined in the 9th game of season...passed for over 200 yards in five of the final six games...earned two game balls in victories vs. Detroit (9-13 for 208 yards) and Oakland (9-18 for 161 yards and 3 TDs)...was named Jets' player of the week by Pentax for his play vs. Lions...threw 71-yard TD bomb to Walker with 2:10 left to clinch win over Dolphins at Shea and hit Bruce Harper with 72-yard scoring strike in victory at Miami...best running day was vs. Colts at Shea (6 for 35 yards, 1 TD)...was rusty in preseason after missing most of 1978 and lost starting job to Matt Robinson...took over No. 1 spot in second game of regular season...started spectacularly two years ago, leading Jets to wins vs. Miami and Buffalo with three TD passes in each game...suffered broken left collarbone in fourth game of 1978 at Washington and missed next seven contests...was reinjured when he returned vs. Patriots and was placed on injured reserve...one of Michaels' first decisions as head coach in 1977 was to name Todd his No. 1 QB...progressed rapidly until he sprained right knee in eighth game vs. Miami...Jets were first in AFC passing at the time...missed next two games, returned in last quarter vs. Steelers and started final three...had best passing day in NFL in 1977 and sixth best in Jets' history when he threw for 396 yards (4 TDs) vs. defending Super Bowl champion Oakland...one TD covered 87 yards to Walker, tying the third longest pass ever for the Jets...started six games and was QB of record in two of Jets' three wins as a rookie when he competed against his boyhood idol Namath...ranks second behind Namath in several Jets' career passing categories: yards (6,242), attempts (868), completions (429) and interceptions (61)...is third behind Namath and Al Dorow in career TD passes (36)...was sixth player chosen in first round of draft.

COLLEGE: Chosen Alabama's top QB of 1970's by Birmingham Post-Herald...named All-SEC by AP and UPI as a senior...honorable mention All-America...selected MVP by teammates...led Alabama to three straight SEC titles...MVP in 1976 Sugar Bowl...also played in Sugar Bowl as sophomore and Orange Bowl as a junior...completed 101 of 189, 1,642 yards, 16 TDs in career...rushed for 1,254 yards on 304 carries (4.1 avg.), 16

TDs ...South MVP in Senior Bowl, passing for 332 yards and two TDs as dropback passer after running wishbone attack for Crimson Tide...picked for Chicago College All-Star Game but did not participate.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in physical education...finished fifth among 12 in ABC's NFL Superstars competition during offseason...pressed 260 pounds to finish second behind Lee Roy Selmon in weightlifting...helped at Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center last year...did public service TV message for United Way in 1978...biggest thrill in college was playing for Bear Bryant...enjoys scuba diving, hunting and fishing...owns beach house in Gulf Shores, Ala....mother Mary Ann has a master's degree and teaches nursing...father Carl has a doctorate and is associate dean of education at University of South Alabama...three-sport standout at Davidson High in his hometown of Mobile, Ala...birthplace, Birmingham, Ala.

STAN Waldemore 70

G-C-T 6-4 250 2/20/55
Nebraska
Free Agent, 1978 3rd Season

PRO: "Stan can play any position in the line," Michaels said. "He did a good job filling in for Joe Fields at Green Bay. He's big, strong and intelligent."...played in 16 games in 1979 mostly on special teams...started only game of pro career vs. Packers in place of injured center Fields...after shaky start, settled down and helped Jets rush for 246 yards, second best of the year...received special award from team for his effort...was waived on Aug. 20 last year and re-signed eight days later...originally signed with the Jets as free agent on Oct. 10, 1978, and played in four of the remaining contests...drafted in third round by Atlanta that year...survived training camp but was cut two days before opening game...very strong...bench presses 450 pounds.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman at Nebraska...played on Big Eight championship team as a soph...played in East-West Game and Senior Bowl...redshirted in 1974 when he switched from DT to OT.

PERSONAL: Single...has degree in construction management...All-America at Essex Catholic High in his birthplace of Newark, N.J....also a shot put standout...hometown: Belleville, N.J.

PRO CAREER STATS: Games played/started: 1978 (4/0). 1979 (16/1).

WESLEY Walker 85

WR 6-0 175 5/26/55
California
Draft 2, 1977 4th Season

PRO: "Wesley was on his way to his finest season before he got hurt," Michaels said. "Even though he had fewer catches than the year before, he had more big plays. We're looking forward to his full recovery. He stayed in the New York area and worked hard rehabilitating his knee during the offseason."...one of the most dangerous deep threats in the NFL...sprained his knee in second quarter at Houston (already had four catches for 111 yards)...was placed on injured reserve (Oct. 31) and missed final seven games...still led the Jets in receiving yardage (569) for the third straight season...had best avg. per reception (24.7) among all NFL receivers with 10 or more catches...was almost even with his 1978 pace when he was a starter in the Pro Bowl, a consensus all-pro, Jets' MVP and the NFL leader in receiving yards (1,169) and avg. gain per catch (24.4)...through the first nine games of 1979, Walker's stats: 23 receptions, 569 yards, 24.7 avg., 5 TDs...at same time in 1978, he was 24-579-24, 1-3...streak of 31 straight games with at least one catch was broken at New England in 1979...came back with six receptions for 177 yards next week vs. Detroit...grabbed 71-yard TD bomb from Richard Todd with 2:10 to go to clinch victory over Dolphins at Shea...had two TDs vs. Oakland...averaged 38.0 yards per TD reception last year...had an amazing 52.0 avg. on eight TDs in 1978, including dramatic 75-yarder in fourth quarter at Denver that gave Jets 31-28 triumph...earned game ball for his effort...also received game ball in victory vs. Colts at Shea...had 48 receptions in 1978, the most by a Jet wide receiver since 1968...named to every NFL all-rookie team in 1977 when he led league with 21.1 avg. per catch...had four receptions for a career-high 178 yards vs. Oakland, including 87-yard TD from Todd that tied third longest pass play in Jets' history...ranks seventh among Jet career leaders in receiving yardage (2,478)...has had seven games with 100 or more yards receiving...has a remarkable 45.5-yard avg. on 16 career TD catches...runs 40 in 4.35 seconds.

COLLEGE: Rated 10th best player in country at any position by Jets' scouts, who were very surprised that he was still available in second round...probably was not drafted higher because he underwent knee surgery after the seventh game of his senior year...Jets' trainer Bob Reese examined him before draft and gave him clean bill of health...holds NCAA record for average gain per reception in a career (25.7)...in four years caught passes from Vince Ferragamo, Steve Bartkowski and the late Joe Roth...also returned kickoffs in first three seasons...had 86 receptions for school record 2,206 yards and tied Pac-8 record with 22 TD catches...set conference record with 289 yards receiving vs. San Jose State...his 88-yard TD reception vs. Georgia in 1976 was the longest in California history...ranked second to Chuck Muncie in career all-purpose yardage for Golden Bears...outstanding in track as sprinter and part of relay team...was Cal's first four-year double sport letterman since pre-World War II...was teammate of Jets' fullback Tom Newton.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in economics...bought house on Long Island during offseason...helped generate support for "Keep Suffolk County Clean" campaign...participated in Easter Seal telethon in March...is legally blind in left eye because of cataract he's had since birth..."It's really nothing," Walker says. "I've been playing sports with it all my life. I kept it pretty much a secret through high school and college. When I was 14 I was supposed to have surgery to remove the cataract, but the doctors decided it wouldn't have helped. I do have good peripheral vision. When I close my good eye I can still get around the house with my bad one open. It's just that I can't read the eye charts with it. When I was a kid I used to memorize the big letters."...father John Wesley served in Vietnam and was stationed in Germany, Paris and all across United States...only once did Wesley go to the same school for three straight years, Carson (Calif.) High, where he was Los Angeles 100-yard and 220 champion and member of two L.A. championship football teams...played defensive back as well as wide receiver...was football player before becoming a track man...birthplace: San Bernardino, Calif....selected as Jets' spokesman for NFL-United Way campaign this year.

I have to use a wide-angle shot so that Wesley doesn't run out of the picture. He's difficult to shoot close up because his moves are so quick. I'm liable to lose him. —Jets' film director Jim Pons

CHRIS Ward

72

T 6-3 270 12/16/55
Ohio State
Draft 1, 1978 3rd Season

PRO: "Chris showed progress last year," Michaels said. "He had a rash of holding penalties early in the season, but he improved his techniques and settled down to have a fine last half of the year. Run-blocking is his biggest asset. He does a great job with Mickey Shuler in short-yardage situations. Chris is a potential all-pro..." started every game at left tackle for the second straight year...Jets led NFL in rushing behind the blocking of Ward and the rest of the offensive line...an overpowering, aggressive lineman...has quick feet and good balance...was consensus NFL all-rookie in 1977...fourth player chosen in first round of draft...when Ward was picked, Michaels said, "I see Chris as a modern edition of Jim Parker (former Colt, now in Hall of Fame), and I wouldn't say that about too many people. With Marvin Powell at right tackle, we've got two bookends for the next 10 years."

COLLEGE: "Chris has the finest work habits of any player I've coached at Ohio State," said Woody Hayes...consensus first team All-America in 1976 and 1977 and first team All-Big Ten for three straight seasons...named Offensive Lineman of the Year by Downtown Athletic Club during Heisman Trophy ceremonies...four-year letterman, three-year starter...played 1,049 minutes in 44 games, more than any player in Ohio State history...played in Rose Bowl twice plus Orange, Sugar and Hula bowls...earned three varsity letters for Buckeye track squad as discus and shot put specialist.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in finance...an honor student throughout college...studied at Ohio State during part of the off-season and later worked for Grumman Corp. on Long Island nicknamed "Cubby"...helped last year at Jets' Christmas party for children at Nassau County Medical Center...also aided fund-raising activities for Deborah Hospital in New Jersey...went to Patterson Cooperative High in his hometown of Dayton...set Ohio high school discus record...birthplace: Cleveland.

PRO CAREER STATS: Games played/started: 1978 (16/16), 1979 (16/16)

Chris Ward is one fine blocker, and he's the best run-blocker in the game. He is so quick, he gets off the ball like two people.

—Al (Bubba) Baker, Lions' standout

BOB Winkel

71

DT-DE 6-4 255 10/23/55
Kentucky
Free Agent, 1979 2nd Season

PRO: "Bob was a good free agent pickup," Michaels said. "He got some playing time in at both tackles. He's quick and he has added bulk..." played in last 15 games of 1979 primarily on special teams and occasionally in defensive line...in certain situations was in defensive lineup with five other rookies at the same time...originally drafted in seventh round by Minnesota last year...Jets acquired him on waivers on Aug. 22...was released on

WINKEL (continued)

Aug. 27 and re-signed as free agent the next day...put on 10 solid pounds during offseason.

COLLEGE: Four-year starter...played in Peach Bowl in 1976...sat out 1977 season with ankle injury but returned to starting DT in 1978.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in industrial management...hobby is restoring old sports cars...was all-state at Oak Ridge High in hometown of Oak Ridge, Tenn....birthplace: Paducah, Ky.

BOBBY

Batton

30

RB 5-11 190
Nevada-Las Vegas
Draft 7a, 1980

3/17/57

COLLEGE: A fast (4.5 in 40), elusive runner who didn't get a lot of exposure at Nevada-Las Vegas...could be a "sleeper," according to Walt Michaels...carried just 22 times for 69 yards as a senior when he played only against non-Western Athletic Conference teams...a transfer from Santa Rosa JC in California. Batton did not have enough credits for eligibility under WAC rules although he did meet UNLV standards...even though UNLV had not been officially voted into the WAC for the 1979 season, the Rebels didn't want to jeopardize their chances and kept Batton out of games against future WAC opponents...scouts say he can do everything you want from a back...has strength to run inside, speed to get outside and ability to block and play for special teams...reminded UNLV coaches of Mike Thomas, now with Chargers...gained 346 yards in 74 attempts (4.7 avg) and 3 TDs as a junior, including a 46-yard spurt...caught 7 for 121 yards, including 78-yard TD vs. Colorado State...also ran track at UNLV with a best of 10.7 in 100 meters and 21.2 in 200...has "big play" capabilities...was MVP at Santa Rosa in 1976 and all-conference in 1977.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in physical education...enjoys gardening...rushed for 820 yards as a senior at Mission High in his hometown of San Francisco...has served as Pop Warner football coach at home and would like to coach some day...birthplace: Yazoo City, Miss.

JOHNNY "LAM"

Jones

80

WR 5-11 180

Texas

Draft 1, 1980

4/4/58

COLLEGE: "I've seen six films of Johnny. He should add a new dimension to our offense and improve our overall team speed," Michaels said. "He opened up the running game for Texas; and we feel that teamed with Wesley Walker, he can do the same for us. I've met Johnny, and he's a top-flight person,"...director of player personnel Mike Hickey: "It's a rare opportunity that enables you to acquire an outstanding football player who happens to one of the fastest men in the world. He was timed at 4.34 seconds in the 40, and his second 40 yards are even faster than his first. He's a quality person who works extremely hard. Johnny has real good hands and possesses particularly outstanding running ability after making the catch. He shows both mental and physical toughness in that he'll battle for the extra yard upfield to get a first down instead of going out of bounds. He's also a good blocker who's extremely strong for his size. Johnny's a winner with unlimited potential."...Texas coach Fred Akers: "There is no wide receiver in the country with his talent. There are some with more experience as a receiver but none with his abilities. Everyone knows where he is at all times, and I'm not just talking about defensive backs. Johnny is so tough, too. That's something the average person doesn't see. He is such a beautiful athlete. He just kind of glides along."...selected first team All-America last year by The Sporting News and Football News and honorable mention by AP and UPI...chosen first team All-Southwest Conference by AP, UPI and SWC players...also named to AP SWC All-Decade (1970's) second team...holds eight Texas records and shares two others...has four career receiving records with 85 receptions for 1,603 yards, 18.9 avg., 14 TDs...one out of every six of his catches was a TD...set school mark with 198 yards receiving vs. Baylor in 1979 and tied record with eight receptions in the game...set two season records with 25.9 avg. gain per reception in 1977 and 32.3 avg. gain per kickoff return in 1978 when he was Longhorns' MVP, first team All-America (Football News) and first team All-SWC (UPI and players)...showed versatility that season by scoring on a 100-yard KO return vs. SMU (school record), a 25-yard run vs. Oklahoma and five TD receptions...averaged 11.3 yards every time he touched the ball in his career...despite having worked with six different QBs in four years, he led team in receiving as a sophomore (21-543-25.9-57 LG-7 TDs, tied school record), junior (25-446-17.8-57-5) and senior (36-535-14.9-54-2)...was second leading rusher with 624 yards as a freshman (29 fewer than injury-plagued Earl Campbell)...had 63-yard run vs. SMU and scored 5 TDs for the season...rushed for 182 yards vs. Rice, the most ever by a Longhorn freshman...career rushing totals: 156-850-5.5-63 LG-6 TDs...career KO return totals: 28-589-21.0-100 LG-1 TD...moved to flanker as a sophomore...ran track at Texas in 1977 and part of 1978...as a freshman finished second in 100-meter dash at NCAA championship meet and contributed record 29 points toward Longhorns' SWC title by winning 100 and 220, finishing fourth in long jump and anchoring winning 440 and mile relay teams...has time of 9.05 seconds in 100 yards...second player chosen in draft...Jets obtained pick by trading their two first round choices (13th and 20th) to San Francisco...is the second highest first round draft pick in Jets' history behind Joe Namath, who was first player selected in 1965 draft...is also highest chosen WR in NFL draft since 1965.

PERSONAL: Single...majored in physical education...won gold medal as part of U.S. 400-meter relay team at 1976 Olympics and finished sixth in 100-meter dash...nicknamed "Lam" as freshman by coach Darrell Royal to distinguish him from teammate Johnny "Ham" Jones... "Lam" is from Lampasas, Tex., and "Ham" is from Hamlin, Tex....was All-America RB at Lampasas High, where he also competed in track and basketball...was drafted by San Diego Padres after senior year in late round even though he hadn't played baseball since he was a youngster...donated his Olympic gold medal to Special Olympics founder Eunice Kennedy Shriver...shortly after signing a contract with Jets, made biggest single contribution ever to Texas Special Olympics, which holds largest competition in the world...this year's games were dedicated to "The Spirit of Johnny Jones" before he made the donation...was named to Governor's Commission on Physical Fitness in 1976...an avid photographer who has had his works on exhibit...birthplace: Lawton, Okla...moved in seventh grade to Lampasas, where he lived with his grandparents...became friends with Jets' second round pick, Darrol Ray of Oklahoma, who grew up about 30 miles from Lampasas in Killeen, Tex...did not play against each other in high school.

I think Johnny will be an outstanding football player in the NFL....He's got skills kids dream about. The man can run like no other....Johnny, Earl Campbell, Johnnie Johnson (L.A.'s 1980 first round pick). Those are dirt people, that's what I call them. They come up out of it, but they reach back down and pull somebody else out of the dirt. What Johnny's done, he's done from his heart, not for publicity.

— Charlie Lee, Texas' receiver coach and hometown of Bellaire, Ohio...was all-state in football and all-conference in baseball and basketball...enjoys woodworking.

It was really interesting. Before I went down, I pictured the tunnel as being dark with timbers maybe six feet high and five feet across, but in some places it was about 20 feet high and eight feet wide. And the strangest part was that it's all white down there. To prevent fires they throw this pulverized lime dust all over the walls. So it's either pure white or a kind of grayish color.

1980 JETS TENTATIVE ITINERARY AND HOTEL HEADQUARTERS

NOTE: All New York Jets' flights are via Eastern Airlines charters. They all will depart from LaGuardia's main or shuttle terminal (check with PR department week before game). With the exception of the preseason game at Philadelphia (busing the day of game) and the regular season game at Los Angeles (leaving Friday), the team will depart on all flights the day before the game. The team will return to New York the night of the game. The bus will depart from the stadium to the airport not later than one hour after the game. The night before every regular season home game, the Jets will be headquartered on Long Island at the Holiday Inn in Westbury, N.Y. (516-997-5000).

1979 JETS GAME-BY-GAME

(Attendance figures are turnstile counts)

Sept. 2, CLEVELAND 25, at JETS 22 overtime (48,472)—Overcast and humid. For the second straight year, the Browns staged a last-minute rally to tie the Jets; and Don Cockroft's FG provided the winning points in overtime. Cockroft's fourth field goal of the game, a 27-yarder with 15 seconds left in OT, gave the Browns a 25-22 win. In 1978, the veteran kicker booted a 22-yarder in OT to give his club a 37-34 triumph. The Jets appeared to have their season opener clinched when the Browns took over on their own 16 with 30 seconds remaining and no times out. But QB Brian Sipe performed magic again when his pass was tipped by the Jets' Donald Dykes into Dave Logan's hands for a 37-yard completion, and a roughing-the-passer call on Mark Gastineau added 15 yards to give Cleveland the ball on the Jet 18. Cockroft calmly booted a 35-yarder with four seconds left to send it into OT. The Browns' winning score was set up by a 33-yard interception return by Oliver Davis and a 21-yard Sipe-to-Logan pass. Sipe finished 36-21-302-3 int -2 TD. Playing with a bandaged right thumb, Jet QB Matt Robinson was 31-17-191-2-0 and was sacked five times. The Jets rushed for 229 yards with Scott Dierking (94 yards) leading the way.

Sept. 9, at NEW ENGLAND 56, JETS 3 (53,113)—Sunny and cool. The Patriots put together 597 yards in total offense (the most ever against the Jets) as they handed New York the worst defeat in club history. QB Steve Grogan led the onslaught (18-13-315-1 int.-5 TDs) in two-and-a-half periods of action. Jets' mistakes (three turnovers and a partially blocked punt) helped the Patriots build a 35-3 halftime cushion. Grogan left the game in the third quarter after Harold Jackson's third TD catch. The Patriots' defense ensured coach Ron Erhardt's first pro win by holding the Jets to their lowest offensive output of the season (134 yards), registering nine QB sacks and collecting six turnovers. Richard Todd made his first start since the Patriot game of Nov. 19, 1978, when he suffered a second break of his left collarbone. He completed 10 of 20 for 118 yards with little time to set up.

Sept. 16, at JETS 31, DETROIT 10 (49,612)—Sunny and mild. Kevin Long tied a team record for the second time in his career with three TD runs. Richard Todd completed 9 of 13 passes for 208 yards and the defense came through with its best performance of the year as the Jets defeated Detroit for their first win of the season. Long, who had a game-high 76 yards rushing, rambled for two TDs in the second quarter to help the Jets overcome a 7-0 deficit. Todd's 47 and 32-yard tosses to Wesley Walker set up Long's scores. Walker had the second best receiving day of his career (177 yards) on six catches. The Lions, quarterbacked by rookie Jeff Komlo, managed just 229 yards in total offense, the lowest for a Jets' opponent in 1979. Greg Buttle, who lost 11 pounds during the week due to a stomach virus, came through with 11 solo tackles to earn a game ball along with Todd.

Sept. 23, at BUFFALO 46, JETS 31 (68,731)—Sunny and mild. It was the kind of play that works "once in a thousand times", according to Buffalo rookie Jerry Butler. The one time came with seven seconds remaining in the first half and the Jets leading 24-12. Joe Ferguson lobbed the "Hail Mary" bomb, and safety Burgess Owens tipped the ball in Butler's hands for a 75-yard TD that gave the Bills the momentum to beat the Jets in Buffalo for the first time since 1975. Butler grabbed 10 passes, four of them TDs, for 255 yards, the seventh highest total receiving yardage in NFL history and the best ever against New York. Ferguson, who had his finest day as a pro (19 of 30 for 367 yards), threw three of his club-record five TD passes in the second half to give the Bills a 46-24 advantage before Richard Todd connected with Mickey Shuler for a 27-yard TD on the last play of the game. The Jets had their best rushing game of the season with 265 yards on 42 attempts as Scott Dierking (97), Clark Gaines (88) and Tom Newton (68) paced the offense. Newton, substituting for injured Kevin Long, had a pair of TDs in the second quarter, including a 51-yard jaunt that was the second longest TD run in Jet history. Buffalo had 497 yards in total offense.

Sept. 30, at JETS 33, MIAMI 27 (51,496)—Overcast and cool. Richard Todd threw just 10 times but completed six of them for 186 yards as the Jets knocked Miami from the unbeaten ranks. Todd's 71-yard TD bomb to Wesley Walker with 2:10 remaining (only Todd's second pass of the half) gave the Jets a 33-20 advantage before Bob Griese hit Nat Moore for a six-yard TD on the last play of the contest. In the first quarter rookie Johnny Lynn recovered a blocked punt by Donald Dykes in the end zone to give New York a quick lead. For the second straight week, Tom Newton scored two TDs in the second quarter, the last one coming with one second remaining in the half. Newton earned a game ball along with Bobby Jackson (58-yard TD on interception return). Clark Gaines rushed for 92 yards, 24 more than the entire Miami offense. Griese attempted 45 passes, his most since 1969, and completed 22 for 296 yards.

minute later, but Donald Dykes was called for roughing-the-punter, and the Colts kept the ball the rest of the way. Punter Bucky Dilts took an intentional safety with four seconds left to give New York its last two points. Greg Landry completed 23 of 36 passes for 235 yards, including a 17-yard TD to Reese McCall that capped a 97-yard drive in the first period. The Jets drove 85 yards to the Baltimore one-yard line late in the second quarter, but the Colts held and forced New York to settle for Pat Leahy's FG with four seconds to go. The Jet defense came through with its best effort of the year against the run, holding the Colts to 44 yards.

Oct. 15, at JETS 14, MINNESOTA 7 (54,479)—Clear and cool. The number seven proved significant in the first Monday night television game ever from Shea Stadium between the youngest (Jets) and the oldest (Vikings) teams in the NFL. The Jets had not won a Monday TV contest in seven tries, but they broke the losing streak by forcing seven Minnesota turnovers and holding the Vikings to seven points. The Jet defense limited Minnesota to just 54 yards rushing and picked off four interceptions, including a 32-yard TD return by Shafer Suggs in the third period that provided the margin of victory. Richard Todd, who completed 9 of 13 for 72 yards, scored in the first quarter on a three-yard run. The TD was set up by Tim Moresco's recovery of a fumbled punt on the Viking 18. Minnesota cut the Jet lead to 14-7 in the fourth quarter and threatened to score again, but Stan Blinka picked off Tommy Kramer's pass that was deflected by teammate Johnny Lynn with 2:54 to go. Kramer attempted a career-high 48 passes and completed 28 for 270 yards. The game ball went to coach Walt Michaels.

Oct. 21, at JETS 28, OAKLAND 19 (55,802)—Hazy and hot. Richard Todd threw for three TDs, and the Jets picked off five of Ken Stabler's passes before the largest crowd of the year at Shea. Greg Buttle's interception in the second period and Shafer Suggs' theft in the third set up Todd's first two TD tosses, both to Wesley Walker. Johnny Lynn put the final nail in Oakland's coffin when he returned the first interception of his life 32 yards to the Raider 20 with 6:03 to go. Six plays later Todd hit Mickey Shuler for a score that gave New York an insurmountable 28-13 advantage. The five interceptions were the most by the Jets since 1973. Stabler, who had been intercepted only six times in the first seven games, had career highs of 47 passes, 29 completions and 360 yards, and Mark van Eeghen was the leading rusher (86 yards) and receiver (7 for 108) in the contest. Scott Dierking paced New York with 85 yards on the ground and a TD. Todd, who completed 9 of 18 for 161 yards, and Lynn received game balls.

Oct. 28, at HOUSTON 27, JETS 24 overtime (45,825)—Besides losing in overtime for the second time of the season, the Jets also lost the services of all-pro WR Wesley Walker for the remainder of the year. Walker was having one of his best games as a pro, four catches for 111 yards and one TD, before suffering a knee injury late in the second quarter. In addition, Joe Fields went out of the game two plays later, bruising his shoulder while making a tackle after an interception. With two key members of the offense on the sidelines, Richard Todd brought the Jets back from a 24-10 deficit late in the fourth quarter. Todd, who threw for 225 yards, tossed a 10-yard TD pass to Jerome Barkum with five minutes left to bring the Jets within a TD. The New York defense, which held the powerful Oiler rushing attack to 112 yards, then stopped Houston on three straight downs to give Todd one last shot. With less than one minute remaining, Todd bulldozed his way into the end zone on a one-yard plunge to send the game into overtime. Houston won the coin toss, and the Jets would not get the chance to send their offense back on the field. Dan Pastorini, who completed 18 of 36 for 212 yards, connected on two crucial third down passes in the drive before Toni Fritsch hit a 35-yard FG to end the extra session after only five minutes. NFL rushing champion Earl Campbell carried the ball only 11 times for 37 yards and left the game with a sore knee in the third quarter.

Nov. 4, JETS 27, at GREEN BAY 22 (54,201)—Partly cloudy, windy and cold. The Jets' league-leading rushing attack, powered by the offensive line and Clark Gaines' career-high 125 yards, accounted for 246 yards (second highest Jet total in 1979). Gaines, who was awarded a game ball along with the entire defensive unit, carried just 16 times, but one of them was for a career-high 52 yards that set up the Jets' second TD of the second quarter. On the ensuing kickoff, Aundra Thompson angled down the left sideline and broke free for a 100-yard TD to give the Packers their last lead, 15-14. It took Richard Todd 1:31 to move the Jets 65 yards for a TD as he completed four passes in the drive, capped by a six-yard scoring strike to Bruce Harper with 13 seconds left in the first half. Toni Linhart's two FGs in the second half provided the margin of victory. The Packers threatened in the last two minutes when David Whitehurst completed 5 of 7 passes to move his club from the Green Bay 15 to the Jets' 45. But with 24 seconds left, Joe Klecko hit Whitehurst just as he was releasing the ball, and Greg Buttle intercepted at the Jets' 24. Stan Waldemore did a creditable job in place of injured center Joe Fields, who missed his first game ever as a pro and had his streak of 49 straight starts snapped. Waldemore and Bobby Jones, who also was making his first NFL start, received special awards.

Nov. 11, BUFFALO 14, at JETS 12 (50,647)—Raining and cold. Placekicking problems haunted the Jets as two missed extra points by Toni Linhart enabled Buffalo to defeat New York for the second time in 1979. In a steady downpour throughout most of the game, the Bills held the Jets' league-leading rushing attack to its lowest output of the year (67 yards). After a scoreless first quarter, Terry Miller, who rushed for a game-high 81 yards, led Buffalo downfield, resulting in Mike Collier's TD plunge. The Jets came back with a 54-yard scoring drive capped by Kevin Long's drive over the goal line. But Linhart's PAT went wide left and New York trailed 7-6 at the half. Joe Ferguson, who completed 11 of 17 for 132 yards, tossed a 30-yard TD pass to Curtis Brown early in the fourth quarter to put Buffalo up 14-6. Richard Todd, who passed for 180 yards (on 16 of 25), brought the Jets back minutes later when he connected with Bobby Jones for his first TD catch in the NFL. This time Linhart's PAT was wide right. New York got the ball back with 1:36 left, but Mario Clark picked off Todd's pass at midfield.

Nov. 18, at CHICAGO 23, JETS 13 (52,635)—Sunny and mild. "We didn't play well offensively or defensively," said Walt Michaels. "We had opportunities, but we just didn't take advantage of them. Our quarterback was being hit just too many times. It's hard to throw when you're getting hit." The Jets jumped out to a 6-0 lead as Richard Todd (24-15-202 yards) marched the New Yorkers 86 yards in 13 plays on their second possession, but Toni Linhart's missed PAT (his third in a row going back to the Buffalo game) kept haunting them. "The missed kick keeps staying in your mind. It means you have to play differently," said Michaels. The Bears answered the Jets' TD with their own 77-yard drive and led 7-6. Taking advantage of a Todd interception, they moved to a 14-6 lead, Mike Phipps, who was 13-18 for 117 yards, connected on his second TD (Dave Williams) to make it 20-6 in the third quarter, and Bob Thomas added a FG. The Jets closed to 23-13 as Todd drove the club 80 yards in 15 plays, going the final yard himself. The Jets' last threat was snuffed out on the Chicago four with 43 seconds remaining. Bobby Jones' seven receptions, the most by a Jet in 1979, accounted for 99 yards.

Nov. 26, at SEATTLE 30, JETS 7 (59,977)—"It was one hell of a learning lesson for a whole lot of young players," remarked Walt Michaels following the sound whipping from the Seahawks on Monday night TV. Jim Zorn set a club record with 14 straight pass completions to lead Seattle. He completed 25 (tied his own team record) of 32 for 285 yards and three TDs. Zorn connected on eight throws to Dave Smith for 86 yards, seven to Steve Largent for 68 and six to Sam McCullum for 80. The Jets' only tally came at the end of a nine-play, 77-yard drive when Kevin Long traveled the final yard. Long's seventh TD of the season made the score 23-7. Richard Todd moved the club but couldn't get the ball in the end zone. He completed 19 of 26 for 226 yards, all personal highs for the season. Clark Gaines led the Jets' rushing offense with 71 yards, and Jerome Barkum had six catches for 103 yards.

Dec. 2, at JETS 30, BALTIMORE 17, (47,744)—Partly cloudy, windy and cold. "How do you go from being whipped one week to winning the next?" asked Walt Michaels. "Sometimes it's just a matter of inches. A few plays here and there can change everything. Today we had those kinds of plays that just clicked." The Jets ended a three-game skid as Richard Todd called his own plays for the first time in 1979 and completed 12 of 26 for 215 yards, passed for one TD and ran for another. "This was as good a game as I've seen Richard play," Michaels said. "He showed a lot of maturity." The relaxed and confident Todd led the offense on scoring marches of 94 and 74 yards as the Jets cashed in on two Colts' fumbles. Joe Klecko, playing on the punt return team for the first time of the season, blocked a Colt kick with 34 seconds left in the first half to set up Todd's TD run that gave the Jets a 20-3 advantage. Klecko also contributed two QB sacks and five solo tackles to earn a game ball. Dave Jacobs, the Jets' fourth placekicker of the season, booted New York's longest FG of 1979, 42 yards, and also made two others. Greg Landry kept Baltimore in the game with his season-high 29 completions (49 attempts) for 266 yards.

Dec. 9, at JETS 27, NEW ENGLAND 26 (45,131)—Partly cloudy and cold. The Jets got revenge for the early season 56-3 drubbing and knocked the Patriots out of playoff contention at the same time. Dave Jacobs converted a 25-yard FG with 1:57 to go to give the Jets a 27-19 lead. Steve Grogan, who completed 15 of 36 for 247 yards, moved the Patriots downfield in only one play, a 39-yard TD toss to Stanley Morgan, to draw within one point with 1:45 remaining. After two unsuccessful attempts at an onside kick by New England, the Jets recovered. Scott Dierking, who led all runners with 93 yards, made a critical first down on a fourth down run to enable the Jets to run out the clock. The outcome might have been different had it not been for a heads-up play by punter Chuck Ramsey in the second quarter when he fumbled the snap at the five-yard line and took an intentional safety rather than giving the Patriots the ball near the goal line. Jacobs, who was awarded a game ball, gave the Jets a lift with a 39-yard FG only one second before halftime that pushed New York ahead, 17-12. New England took its last lead early in the third quarter, but Richard Todd marched the Jets back and scored on an eight-yard run to give his team the lead for good. New York's defense pressured Grogan all afternoon, recording a season-high five sacks. The Jets held the potent Patriot rushing attack to only 107 yards while the New Yorkers ran for 154 yards against the NFL's second best rushing defense.

Dec. 15, JETS 27, at MIAMI 24 (49,915)—Partly cloudy and warm. For the first time since 1974, the Jets won their final game of the season, defeating the playoff-bound Dolphins for the fourth straight time. It was only Miami's fifth loss to an AFC East team in the Orange Bowl in the 1970's. The Dolphins jumped to a 14-0 lead with the help of two interceptions. Woody Bennett started the Jets' comeback by scoring on his first NFL rushing attempt in the stadium where he played for the University of Miami. Richard Todd, who tied his season best of 226 yards, opened the second half with the Jets' longest TD pass of the season, 72 yards to Bruce Harper. Harper accounted for 237 yards (in all-purpose yardage), his best effort of the year, to earn the game ball. Todd's four-yard TD toss to Mickey Shuler with 12:25 left in the game proved to be the winning score. Steve Towle's interception at the Miami 39 with less than two minutes remaining gave the Dolphins a final chance to win. Don Strock, who completed 26 of 41 for 322 yards, fumbled the ball after being hit by Stan Blinka on the Dolphins' 10 on a QB scramble, and Burgess Owens recovered to preserve the Jets' third straight victory.

MATT ROBINSON TRADED TO DENVER—Backup quarterback Matt Robinson was traded to Denver for the Broncos' first and second round picks in the 1980 draft plus quarterback Craig Penrose (Feb. 1).

DRAFT—Jets made bold trade to move up to second spot in first round and picked Johnny "Lam" Jones, All-America wide receiver from Texas. New York swapped its two first round choices (13th and 20th) to the 49ers for their first round position (April 29).

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 29, 1968 — SHEA STADIUM

NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland in the ninth annual American Football League championship game. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (two to Don Maynard, one to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who threw for 401 yards. Its running attack was blunted by the Jets' league-leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection by the Jets' line was superb.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

AFL PLAYOFF

DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM

KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

For the second year in a row, the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969, the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

WEEB EWBank — A HALL OF FAMER

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978.

The former Jets' and Colts' (1954-62) head coach achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues.

The Colts were dismal losers when Weeb took over in 1954. He built them up to the NFL champions in 1958 when they beat the Giants in a memorable sudden death overtime and they won the title again in 1959. Weeb joined the Jets in 1963 and developed them to the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Weeb joined impressive company. Paul Brown, George Halas and Vince Lombardi are the only coaches in the Hall of Fame who were contemporaries of Weeb during his head coaching career.
